

Community and Junior College Library Section

Quarterly Report to NCLA Executive Board: April 23, 2012

The Officers of the Community and Junior College Library Section of the North Carolina Library Association have communicated by e-mail and conference calls. Activities the committee is focusing on include: increasing the Section's membership by at least 5 percent using e-mail and conferences to recruit, working as co-sponsors with the College and University Section if they have a conference during 2012, and collaborating with the NC Learning Resources Association.

The Community and Junior College Library Section sponsored/co-sponsored three sessions at the 2011 NCLA Conference: Open Source Library Tools - Wake Technical College, LibGuides with BLINC, and Mobile Technology – Beaufort County Community College.

The committee met during NCLA Conference and elected new officers:

Chair: Penny Sermons, Beaufort County Community College

Secretary-Treasurer: Deanna Lewis, Cape Fear Community College

Vice Chair/Chair Elect: Jason Setzer, Davidson County Community College

Director-at-Large: Keith Burkhead, Guilford Technical Community College

Director-at-Large: Angela S. Davis, Pitt Community College Library
