An Affiliate Fund of the North Carolina Community Foundation

North Carolina Library Association

ENDOWMENT FUND

.... you can make a difference.

The North Carolina Library Association has established a general endowment fund to serve the libraries of North Carolina through support for the activities of the North Carolina Library Association. The NCLA Endowment is an affiliate fund of the North Carolina Community Foundation.

The Endowment provides money for programs, services, and public awareness efforts that cannot be supported by the NCLA operating budget alone. These programs and services include special events and projects, speakers, scholarships, and awards for achievement in the library field.

The Barbara L. Beebe Memorial Fund within the NCLA Endowment helps support the NCLA Leadership Institute, developing new leaders for the North Carolina libraries of tomorrow.
